

THE BROADWAY PLAN

What does it mean for Kitsilano?

Big changes are coming to Kitsilano with numerous developments applying for rezoning or already approved. Many between 18 and 30 storeys and located on residential streets where only single family homes, duplex or low rise rental apartments stand today. What will all this do for housing affordability?

A TOWN HALL MEETING

... was held on Thursday, March 14, 2024 at the Kitsilano Neighbourhood House. See below for web link for video and resources. More meetings are coming. Stay tuned.

Presentations and discussion at the town hall included:

- Moderator: #KitsPlan
- Broadway Plan overview, intro, context, implications
- Two case studies near Yew (2175 W 7th Ave & 2172 W 14th Ave)
- Some issues with highrise development
- Moderated discussion, public Q&A, open mic

2175 W 7th near Yew

Townhall video:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FVkSflrfYbs>

Scan code on left to jump to web page. Or just Google #KitsPlan and CityHallWatch

Presented by CityHallWatch in association with #KitsPlan
More info: CityHallWatch.ca